The New Dimension of Corporate Law in Malaysia

The Companies Act 2016 which was enforced this year has brought about a paradigm shift in the corporate landscape in this country. We would have speakers from the relevant authorities to update delegates on the Companies Act 2016. In addition, delegates would have the opportunities to hear from relevant authorities on Tax, GST and Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Delegates would be privileged to know about the Secretarial Standards of India from ICSI. Just like any other professions which have written professional guidance for example the Financial Reporting Standards, Company Secretaries should also have their own professional standards to guide them in carrying out their professional work. Delegates to this year's Conference would be able to hear from ICSI on the secretarial standards which they have initiated in their jurisdiction.

For this year's Conference, we would have a speaker from Malaysia Competition Commission and this is one area of the corporate landscape and law whereby all professionals, business owners and also company secretaries should be well aware of in order to be able to advise their board of directors.
